KEELBOAT SAILOR OF THE YEAR 2019

REQUEST FOR NOMINATIONS

In 2017 HHYC introduced a new award of Sailor of the Year; the first recipient Toby Jenkyn-Jones (Bits and Pieces) was chosen by the members of the Sailing Committee alone. The trophy was subsequently renamed "The Toby Jug" in memory of the first winner.

The 2018 winner was Sunny Lo (LoTech) who was again selected by the Sailing Committee, but this time there was a shortlist of 5 names that were put forward by regular sailors in HHYC races.

The Sailing Committee requests your nominations for Sailor of The Year 2019, which will be awarded at a Sailors' Awards Event on 9 May 2020. Whilst the rules state that the Keelboat Sailor of The Year will be a HHYC member; nominations can include any person that regularly sails in the races organized by HHYC. The Sailing Committee will award a special recognition prize to any nominated non-member that is deemed worthy of such award.
